A most Praiseworthy Movement—Association for the Relief of the Destitute and Suffering.

The subjoined statement of the organization, in this place, of an Association to concentrate and dispense the charity of the Public to the needy and suffering who are among us, was handed to us for publication, as an advertisement. But we have thought that perhaps we might more effectually aid the object of the Association, and certainly might mark, more distinctly, our sense of the value and merits of this movement, and its claims upon the cordial approbation and support of our community, by inserting the statement in the most conspicuous place in our editorial columns, and giving to it our most hearty and emphatic commendation.

We understand it to be the purpose of the Committee, in making their announcement to the Public, both to apprise our citizens of the state of facts which calls upon them for their charitable aid, and at the same time, to show that such a plan of action has been formed, and such an organization entered into as to ensure that all the contributions which may be received, will be most judiciously and faithfully applied. That such will be the case, the distinguished and well-known names connected with the Association, as well as the excellent plan and arrangement of the Association itself, give the most complete and satisfactory guaranty. We are happy to learn that a considerable amount of contributions have already been received; and those who know the citizens of San Francisco best, feel the most sanguine and undoubting confidence that out of their abundance, this appeal for a real, practical, and most needful public charity, will be so responded to as to demonstrate that though our community is still but in its infancy, it is yet fully matured in the humanity and generosity of its feelings and sentiments, and in its ability to display them fitly.

The Committee have, we think, very properly noted the fact that it is especially and principally among our unsettled and floating population that the suffering exists, which it is the noble object of this movement to allviate. Any other general view of the matter would seem to be inconsistent with what is known here and elsewhere of the business and prosperity of our community, and of the large remuneration which every kind of labor, when it finds steady employment here, can command. But nothing is more certain than that in the class of our population referred to, much misery is, at this moment, endured—misery which is not the result of vice, or of wastefulness, or of unwillingness to labor—misery which comes from broken health, from plans of action thwarted or deranged by the inclemency of the season, from the disappointments and mischances to which labor is everywhere more or less liable, and especially from ignorance, on the part of many arriving here, of the peculiar privations and perils and necessities of a new and remote country. Misery, like this, is unable to work and ashamed to beg. It is to be found among us, we doubt not, in many cases, in frames which seemed to be of iron hardihood when they came here, but which exposure and fatigue have now shattered, and in spirits once full of enterprise and daring, which the heavy and inevitable hand of disease has now conquered and quelled. Beneath its insufficient canvass shelter, through which the rain beats down, or else, perhaps, wholly without home or shelter, such suffering moans in solitude, (for we have seen no public begging in our streets,) and in a land of strangers, turns its haggard eye for consolation, and stretches out its emaciated hand for aid, towards that instinct of Public Charity, and that feeling of Human Brotherhood, of which this most meritorious Association has made itself the instrument and organ. During the past year, this community of San Francisco, in circumstances of peculiar difficulty, has done much which will be remembered to its praise and its honor; but it has done nothing which will bear clearer or louder witness in its praise, than the accomplishment of the benevolent objects for which this Association was formed, and which, with the support of the public, it is so well fitted to accomplish.

WHEREAS, It is a fact well known to many of the citizens of San Francisco, that there are constantly occurring, among our floating population, cases of destitution and distress, of a character requiring prompt relief, in order that such relief may be effectual; and the citizens of San Francisco having, in public meeting determined that it is a high and sacred duty devolving upon them to afford such relief as these cases may, temporarily, require—and having appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions, and otherwise carry out the intentions expressed at the public meeting—that committee do adopt, as a basis for the development of this public charity, the following

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS:

Article I. This Public Charity to be organized under the title of the "PUBLIC ASSOCIATION FOR THE RELIEF OF DESTITUTION AND DISTRESS."

Art. II. MEMBERSHIP.—Every person who shall contribute to the funds of this association shall be deemed a member of the same.

Art. III. GOVERNMENT—to consist of a President, four Vice Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer, Relief Committee and Auditors.

Art. IV. The President, Vice Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer, with His Honor the Alcalde and the U. S. Collector of the District (ex officio Vice Presidents) shall compose the Board of Directors of the Association.

Art. V. DUTIES.—The Directors of the Association shall call public meetings, and lay a statement of the affairs of the Association before the public at any time they may deem it expedient to do so, or at the request of ten members.

Art. VI. The Relief Committee, of — members, and of which the Sheriff, Coroner and 'City Physicians' shall be ex-officio members, shall expend and disburse the funds of the Association which may be confided to them; and it shall be their duty to grant relief, at their discretion, in all cases which come to their knowledge, without reference to the nationality, age, or sex, of the recipient. And this committee, by each of its members, shall keep a note book, in which they shall record all charities extended by them, in the name of the Association.

Art. VII. The President, with any one of the Vice Presidents and Secretary, shall compose a Board of Auditors of all accounts of the Association.

Art. VIII. Officers, when elected, to hold their offices during the pleasure of the Association, and vacancies may be filled at any public meeting.

Art. IX. Persons authorised to receive subscriptions or donations to this Association shall exhibit a certificate signed by the President and Secretary.

Adopted, in General Committee, on Wednesday evening, 12th December.

EDWIN BRYANT, President.

EDMUND OTIS, Secretary.

The committee appointed on Monday night are now soliciting subscriptions and donations, and will report progress, at the public meeting to be held in front of the Ward House, Portsmouth Square, on Sunday (to-morrow), at 2, p. m., when a memorial on the subject of a permanent City Hospital will be read, and the association organised by the election of officers, &c. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12, 1849.

Edwin Bryant, Esq.,

President Hospital Committee,

Sir: Understanding that your committee for the relief of the suffering are asking donations from the citizens of this city, to carry out your praiseworthy work of love, and knowing, as I do, that most of the suffering among us is with the sick and diseased, I tender to you my professional services, for charitable purposes, at all times when not necessarily engaged.

Yours truly,

JAS. F. HIBBERD, M. D.,

Duport st., between Clay and Washington streets.

Accepted, with the thanks of the committee, and ordered to be published with the proceedings.

From Oregon.

By a recent arrival from Portland, Oregon, we have received copies of the Oregon Spectator to October 18. Emigrants were continually arriving from the mountains, and a large number were still on the way. The Cascade Mountains were on fire, which, it was feared, would hinder the progress of the trains. Two Indian chiefs, of the Sumqualanier tribe, convicted of the murder of Leander C. Wallace, at Fort Nisqually, were publicly executed for the offence. Judge Thornton, of the U. S. District Court, has decided that the giving or selling of intoxicating liquors to Indians, within the Territory, is a criminal offence.

We quote the following items from the Spectator:

THE TROOPS.—The Oregon Regiment of Mounted Riflemen, under the command of Col. Loring, have arrived and taken up their quarters in this city. They appear in fine health and spirits, and were fortunate in getting in before the setting in of the rainy season. Under all the circumstances, the officers are entitled to the highest praise for their vigilance in preventing desertion. And the wonder is that so few have deserted. The temptation to escape to the gold mines was sufficiently great to try the nerve of most men; yet by death and desertion they lost only some sixty or seventy men.

DISTRESSING CASUALTY.—While the troops were descending the Columbia, from the Dalles to Vancouver, a raft, having on board eight men, went over the Cascade Falls, and though it was at the midnight hour, two out of the eight made their escape by swimming to the shore. The other six were unfortunately drowned. We have been unable to learn the names of the persons who were drowned, but we understand they were connected with the wagon train as teamsters.

Kossuth's Correspondence.

The London Times contains a letter from its Vienna correspondent, from which the following extract is taken. The letters of Kossuth, which are quoted, were addressed to Gen. Bem. They throw much light upon the causes of the late Hungarian reverses, and show that Kossuth did all that human ability could do to protract the unequal struggle:

Kossuth's letters will not be published, but I am enabled to give you some few extracts from them, which are of the highest interest, as they not only throw considerable light upon the reported dissensions in the enemy's camp, but give a statement of the resources of the rebel government. Towards the middle of July, Gen. Bem was to have received the sum of 300,000 florins in notes of thirty and fifteen kreutzers, (1s. 6d.) from Kossuth, but the latter was only able to lend him 125,000 florins in addition to the sum which he had forwarded him from Szoenck on the 9th of the same month. Kossuth points out to the Polish chief the difficulties of his position. It being utterly impossible to fabricate any notes for the moment, as it required fourteen days to put up the presses, which had been taken to pieces at Debrsezin and Pesch.

"I do all that a human being can," says Kossuth, "but as I am not the Creator I cannot make something out of nothing. For a whole year no receipts; empty coffers when I took possession of them, and war! At the present moment I have the following troops to support: In Transylvania 40,000. Upper Hungary and Comorn, 45,000, Vetter (south army) 36,000, Theiss army 25,000, Peterwarden

8,000, Kasintzy 8,000, Grosswardein, Arad, Szegedin, &c., 10,800—in all 173,000 men. Add to those eighteen reserve squadrons of hussars, seven infantry battalions in formation, 20,000 sick, 60,000 Landsturm, and our prisoners; the powder mills, foundry, gun, bayonet and sabre manufactory, and the whole civil administration to keep going, and you will, Lieutenant General, confess that the whole is no trifle. And the bank note presses have been at a stand-still for a whole fortnight."

Kossuth complains bitterly of the want of harmony among the commanders in the South, and particularly of Banfi, who refuses to acknowledge Vetter as his commander, alleging that he (Bem) had invested Perezei with the supreme command in the south. Georgey's disobedience is also alluded to, and Bem is ardently prayed, if Hungary is to be saved, to come at once with his army, from Transylvania to take the command of all the allies which were then under Messaros, with Dembinsky as the chief of his staff. A passage in one of the letters, is of the utmost importance, as it explains Kossuth's intentions in regard to the Danubian principalities: "Two emigrants, Bolesko and Bokek, have offered to raise a Wallachian legion, (which I should wish,) let this legion form the advanced guard, as it might spread the report that we came as friends and deliverers. In the proclamation it is a point of consequence to state that we come as friends of the Turks and Wallachians, to free them from the Russian yoke."

The Turks pursue an equivocal policy. "Il faut les compromettre." Kossuth further laments that Bem has abolished all civil jurisdiction in Transylvania, and says, "half the country is in flames, in consequence. Way do you thus compromise me, my dear Field Marshal Lieutenant?" Kossuth states that he is very unwell. The last letter of this most interesting correspondence is of the 26th July. It is from a Hungarian major, announcing the ill success of the Magyars in Wallacia, which he attributes to the behavior of a certain M. Arzian, whose name I have never before met with.

The United States ship Falmouth arrived at this port Thursday, the 13th inst., thirty-three days from Chatham Islands, Gallapagos. She left the United States the 16th of May, touching at Rio de Janeiro, Valparaiso, Callao, Tumbez, and Guayaquil. The following is a list of her officers:

Commander, Thos. Petigrew; Lieutenants, John DeCamp, Geo. M. White, P. B. Renshaw; Surgeon, David Harlan; Lt. Marines, John S. Devlin; Assist't Surgeon, P. M. Grinnell; Acting Master, H. S. Newcomb; Past Midshipmen, Peter Wager, W. R. Bridge, W. DeHoven, W. Reitz; Midshipmen, J. N. Quackenbush, Wm. McN. Armstrong, E. T. Spedding, B. H. Tabb; Capt's Clerk, C. J. Porcher; Gunner, Augustus F. Thompson; Sail Maker, Lewis Rogers; Carpenter, Lewis Holmes; Boatswain, Chas. Johnston; Purser's Clerk, T. D. Burnham; Surgeon's Steward, J. K. Basford.

The STEAMER MINT started yesterday morning, on a trip to San Jose, but having encountered a severe squall, some eight or ten miles above this port, she was compelled to put back. The general opinion, among those on board, so far we heard it, seemed to be that the boat braved the gale well and staunchly; but she was for a few moments in serious peril.

It is understood that she will start again for the same place as soon as the weather is fair.

CITY ITEMS.

REPORTED FOR THE NEWS, BY "BOSTON."

FATAL AFFRAY.—A young man by the name of Arthur Reynolds was stabbed, yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, at the Bella Union, and died almost immediately. A coroner's inquest has been held, we believe, but we are not yet satisfactorily informed of the particulars of the occurrence.

We learn also that a Mr. Brady was stabbed, in three places, at the same time. The wounds were, however, but slight.

A "BREAKDOWN."—The upper floor, in Messrs. Osborne & Brannan's store, gave way, the other night, from the great weight of a quantity of tea that was stored there. A man was sleeping upon the top of the pile of tea chests, when the floor broke through, precipitating man, tea and all into the lower regions. The man was more surprised than hurt at the sudden change of sleeping apartments.

A friend has handed us in the following notice of a gathering of some brethren of "the craft."

PRINTERS IN CALIFORNIA.—Printers are well known, all over the world, as a migratory race of men. No matter how fat the job, present to them some new enterprise, and off they go, leaving friends, home, and kindred, to bear their part in it. We were forcibly reminded of this lately, at a private entertainment, where the entire company numbered but thirteen gentlemen, six of whom had been journeymen printers in the city of New Orleans, all of whom, early in May, 1845, took part in raising the famous Printer Company, in that city, which went to the relief of Gen. Taylor, upon his first call for troops. After the disbanding of the Louisiana volunteers, they separated, and were participants in many of the dreadful actions which our arms encountered in Mexico. We give their names: James L. Freaner, the well known correspondent "Mustang;" John H. Peoples, the pioneer of the American press in Mexico, who has just returned from his mission of benevolence in aid of the suffering emigrants, and who is favorably known as an army correspondent, under the signatures of "Corporal" and "Chapparral." Captains Hiram Fairchild and George Kerr, lately of the Louisiana Mounted Battalion, who performed eminent service during the war, in keeping the road from Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico open. The other two, W. S. Moffatt and D. Jobson, having filled the "measure of their country's glory," in a more retired sphere, are probably not so well known to our readers, but all have been participants in active service in Mexico, and, after five years separation, having passed through many dangers and privations, find themselves once more gathered together, mingling sentiment and jest. They say they have worked off all tokens of the "shop" and every signature to their paper is now worth sixteen dollars to the owner.

POLICE COURT.—Francisco Vinnard was arraigned for obtaining money under false pretences. He was charged with drawing eight ounces of gold from a monte bank, for so much brass filings and lead. The testimony being clear, and the filings produced in court, he was sentenced to pay costs and work one month on the public streets, with a chain and wheelbarrow to his foot.

Second charge against the same, by Celio Crante, not sustained. Complainant to pay costs, $25.

JOHN ADAMS, charged with stealing a watch. Charge sustained by the evidence of Abraham Waters. Remanded to brig Euphemia, till case comes before the grand jury.

A BOY was charged by H. Becker, with obtaining money under false pretences. It was alleged that the boy obtained money on a bag of spelter, representing it be gold dust. The spelter was produced in court. Remanded for further evidence.

A MAN charged with larceny of charcoal, was sent on board the Euphemia, for a further hearing.

BENEFIT OF MR. FOLEY.—The benefit of the popular Clown at Rowe & Co's Circus, takes place this Evening, and we predict for him an overwhelming house.

"DELMONICO'S.—Messrs. Wood & Co., the proprietors of this really elegant establishment, in Exchange Buildings, corner of Kearny and Clay streets, offer a BILL OF FARE that cannot, we think, be excelled by that of any other eating house in the city of San Francisco.

GRAND REGATTA.—It will be seen, by a notice in another column, that a regatta, for the "Ocean House Purse," will come off, at Clark's Point, to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

WHALESHIP BURNED.—On the morning of the 9th inst., the whaling bark Mercury, Capt. G. Pendleton, was burned in this harbor. The fire was discovered about one o'clock, in the forward part of the fore hold; and was so far advanced before it was discovered that every effort to get it under was unavailing. The Mercury was owned in Stonington, and has been out sixteen months, and had on board 1200 barrels of oil. The entire ship and cargo was consumed, and nothing remains of the once noble vessel but a few of the blackened timbers upon the reef, at the leeward side of the harbor. She was all ready for sea, and would have been off in a short time, in prosecution of her voyage.—Polynesian, Nov. 10.

The Yankee has an admirable trick of carrying a printing press upon his shoulder wherever he goes—he cannot live without his paper. Whether he invades Mexico as a soldier, or enters Grenada as an emigrant, he goes armed with type. If he does nothing but show some of "these dragon's teeth" in the land thro' which he passes, no small amount of good should come of it in good time.—London Athenæum.

Soloque, the black Emperor of Hayti, we see it stated, has forwarded $38,000 to London, to purchase a crown for his woolly head. The Senate fixed his salary at $150,000, but subsequently added $50,000 for "pin money" for the Empress.

CUSTOM HOUSE,
San Francisco, Dec. 6, 1849.
NOTICE.—The undersigned has just received a New York paper, containing the circular which follows, from the Secretary of the Treasury. It will be seen that the secretary has settled the question about to be submitted to him from this District.
It will, therefore, be understood that the Law, with all its penalties, will be hereafter enforced.
J. Collier, Collector.

CIRCULAR TO COLLECTORS AND OTHER OF-FICERS OF THE CUSTOMS.
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
July 26th, 1849.

It is represented to this Department, that in some of the ports of the United States, the erroneous practice prevails of admitting the importation of gin and other distilled spirits, in cases or vessels of less capacity than ninety gallons.

By the provision of the 103d section of the general collection act of 2d March, 1799, the importation of any distilled spirits (arrack and sweet cordials accepted) unless in casks or vessels of the capacity of 90 gallons wine measure, and upwards, subjects the said spirits to forfeiture, together with the ship or vessel in which it is imported. The act of 2d March, 1827, makes a further exception, as it relates to brandy, admitting that article in casks of a capacity not less than fifteen gallons; but with this single modification, the prohibitory provision of the act of 1799 above cited, remains unrevoked, and must therefore be strictly enforced.

It is due to the importers within those collection districts in which the erroneous practice referred to has existed, that they be immediately apprised, by a public notice from the Collector's Office, of the views of this Department in regard to importations of the article in question.
